Sorority enjoys early turkey

An early Thanksgiving dinner was enjoyed by the families of XI Gamma Tau Sorority members last Sunday at "Riverlea", the home of Anne and Paul Harris.

Traditional turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served. Each member provided a covered dish.

During the gathering there was a final discussion of plans for the Harvest Dance to be held in Appomattox on November 19.

In addition to hosts, Anne and Paul Harris, present were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Spraker and children, Tara and Roni; Peggy Roach, Janice Russell and children, Tony and Todd; Mr. and Mrs. James E. Smith and children, Chris and Drew; Vickie Lucado and son, Greg; Janice McCormick and daughter, Jennifer Lyn; Pat Martin; Mr. and Mrs. Joe LeGrand and daughter, Angie; Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Eagle and daughter, Kellie; and Mr. and Mrs. Earl P. Kitchen and children, Troy and Sebron.

DONATION: Appomattox American Legion Post 104, represented by Adjutant William E. Neathawk, presented a check for $100.00 from their Bingo profits to Mrs. Virginia Carnefix, treasurer of the Appomattox County Anti-Cold Homes Committee. This money is to be used to help those less fortunate with their fuel bills during an emergency this winter. Other persons and/or organizations wishing to donate to this cause should contact Mrs. Virginia Carnefix or Mrs. Peggy Lawson, President.

Bryants announce birth of girl

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Bryant, Jr. are proud to announce the birth of a daughter, Greta Morgan, born Nov. 8. Greta weighed eight pounds and one ounce and was twenty and one half inches in length.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Guill.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James R. Bryant.

FIFTH AND SIXTH grade Think Tank students at Appomattox Elementary School recently visited the News and Daily Advance in Lynchburg. The students met reporters, observed newspaper layout, and watched the press run the evening edition of the newspaper. Each student was given a copy of the paper as it came off the press. As a follow up these students will begin work on a special edition of a school newspaper. They will take the roles of reporter, circulation department, sports editor, society editor, advertising department, etc.
